HIPAA Test

Name: ___________________________ Agency: ___________________________ Date: __________
Score: ___________________________

1. HIPAA holds covered entities and business associates accountable with civil and criminal penalties if they violate patients' privacy rights.  T   F
2. HIPAA does not guarantee a client's right to know exactly what information is being disclosed about them.  T   F
3. Who's Covered by HIPAA?
   a. Health Plans
   b. Health Care Clearing-houses
   c. Health Care Providers that transmit information electronically
   d. All of the above
4. Your organization is not subject to HIPAA if they receive 3rd party reimbursement.  T   F
5. Address and birth dates are not identifiable health information. T   F
6. Three Parts to HIPAA:
   a. Privacy Rule
   b. Transaction Rule
   c. Security Rule
   d. All of the above
7. The Definition of disclosure is: "The sharing, employment, application, utilization, examination, or analysis of Protected Health Information (PHI) within the covered healthcare organization that maintains the PHI." T   F
8. HIPAA privacy rules also mandate that clients have the right to know about the disclosure of PHI. T   F
9. There are no reasons why a health care organization should disclose PHI. T   F
10. Clients have the right to:
    a. Request restrictions on use and disclosure of PHI.
    b. Access their PHI in most cases.
    c. Amend their PHI.
    d. All of the above
11. There are not penalties if an organization has proper HIPAA training and an individual within the organization did not follow policy and procedures. T   F
12. Names or other information that could identify individuals should be avoided in conversations whenever possible. T   F
13. It is okay to give your password to an IT support person. T   F
14. PHI can be stored on a computer shared drive but not local drives like a C drive. T   F
15. PHI should not be sent via email to general groups of interagency recipients or externally. T   F